

Transportation

The Prague transportation system was awarded as one of the "TOP 5" in Europe.

From Prague, 58 airlines fly to 121 destinations in 43 countries. The international Prague Airport is situated about 20 km west from the city centre. It takes about 30 minutes by city transport or taxi. Prague also has three international railway stations and a bus station, all connected to the metro stations. The highway network links Prague to other significant European destinations. The city is easily accessible from any place in the world.

Prague Airport

Czech Airlines is the flagship airline of the Czech Republic, having provided services since October 1923, thus making it one of the five oldest airlines in the world. Czech Airlines provides connections from the country's capital, Prague, to most European cities, but also to major destinations in the Middle East and Central Asia.

Currently, in addition to direct flights to many European cities, there are also all year or summer direct flights from Prague airport e.g. to Istanbul, Antalya, Baku, Beijing, Chengdu, Dubai, Hurghada, New York, Montreal, Seoul, Tel Aviv, Toronto and Tunis.
